

SWINTON ESTATE

CHEF'S TABLE BY JOSH BARNES

ACCESS STATEMENT

Access to Swinton Cookery School

- There is a loose gravel path leading to Swinton Cookery School, which is 109cm wide, leading to an external door which is 106cm wide. To go through the door, there is a slight step. This path isn't suitable for most wheelchairs
- In the entrance way, there are rugs on a carpeted floor
- The internal door measures 79 cm wide, leading into the Cookery School with two 22cm steps. There is a ramp available upon request
- There is no step-free access
- The marble worktop doubles up as the Pass and stands at 91cm tall. The stools for sitting on are 61cm tall
- The floor is wooden laminate flooring
- There are spotlights in the ceiling and two large windows, which create natural light
- The relaxed seating area has bench seating, which is 52cm high, with cushions on the benches and a wooden backrest
- The toilet is located down the two 22cm steps and through two 79cm wide internal doors. The door leading to the toilet is 69cm wide. The toilet flooring is tiled

